

Anti-Harassment Policy

POLICY: ANTI-HARASSMENT	POLICY DESCRIPTION: Outline the company's policy and reporting procedure on discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment
PAGE: 1 of 2	DEPARTMENT: Human Resources
EFFECTIVE DATE: May 11, 2018	REVISION DATE:

PURPOSE

To provide clear guidance to employees regarding discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and define the process in the event that harassment is reported.

SCOPE

Applies to all Relias employees.

POLICY STATEMENT

Relias is committed to providing a work environment free from unlawful discrimination and harassment and strongly disapproves or, and will not tolerate unlawful harassment, including sexual harassment. This policy applies to conduct occurring in the workplace and/or in other work-related settings, such as business trips, and business related parties and social events. All persons are expected to refrain from engaging in conduct which may be construed as unlawful harassment or sexual harassment. Likewise, each person is expected to take the necessary steps to prevent and eliminate its occurrence. While in some cases individuals may make comments, jokes, or personal advances without intending harm, such action can be unwanted, threatening or perceived as harassment. Stopping harassment in its many forms requires an increased awareness by everyone on the impact that such actions may have on others. This policy prohibits unlawful harassment in any form, including sexual harassment, harassment related to race, color, age, ethnicity, religion, disability, genetic information, sexual orientation, and any other legally protected characteristic.

DEFINITIONS

1. Sexual harassment: unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual acts or favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when (i) submission or rejection of such conduct is a term or condition of employment or is a basis for employment decisions, or (ii) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's working conditions or performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or offensive work environment. Following is a partial list of unwelcome behaviors that may be considered sexual harassment:
 - Verbal conduct such as racial or ethnic epithets, derogatory jokes or comments, slurs, sexual innuendo, sexually suggestive "kidding or teasing," jokes about gender-specific traits, unwanted sexual overtures or comments, inquiries or discussions concerning one's sexual experiences, comments on an individual's body
 - Visual conduct such as derogatory and/or sexually oriented posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;
 - Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, hugging, kissing, intentional brushing up against the body of another employee;

- Threats or demands (quid pro quo) to submit to sexual requests as a condition of continued employment or to avoid a loss of benefits, or offers of benefits in return for sexual favors.
2. Harassment: verbal, written or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of one's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, marital status, citizenship, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by law, or that one's relatives, friends or associates, and that: a) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, b) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance, or c) otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities. Following is a partial list of behaviors that may be considered harassment:
- epithets, slurs or negative stereotyping;
 - threatening, intimidating or hostile acts;
 - denigrating jokes;
 - written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group that is placed on walls or elsewhere on the employer's premises or circulated in the workplace
 - Retaliation for having reported harassment

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Employee:

- a. Whenever possible, any person who is experiencing unwelcome conduct of the type generally described in this policy should inform the person engaging in the conduct that it is unwelcome and request that it stop. The complainant may choose to pursue this option alone, or may ask a supervisor human resources to be present or serve as an intermediary.
- b. In any case, a person who believes that he/she has been harassed by a co-worker, supervisor, client, vendor, or business visitor, or who has witnessed such harassment, is strongly encouraged to report the facts of the incident or incidents in accordance with the reporting procedure laid out below. All persons are urged to come forward with information about allegations of unlawful harassment.

2. Managers:

- a. If you are made aware of any conduct of the type generally described in this policy from either a verbal report of witnessing the conduct, you must report the incident to HR so that it can be investigated.
- b. If you are witness or are made aware of any retaliatory action taking place for those that have reported harassment or participated in an investigation, please promptly inform HR.
- c. Pending the outcome of an investigation, you may be asked by HR to put temporary or more permanent accommodations into place for one or more of your direct reports.

3. Human Resources:

- a. HR will provide consultation and guidance to managers regarding application of this policy.
- b. HR will promptly and thoroughly conduct an object investigation of all complaints of harassment and discrimination.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

Reports of harassment should be directed to your supervisor, another supervisor or manager or a Human Resources representative as soon as possible after an incident. The report should include details of the incident or incidents, names of the individuals involved, and names of any witnesses. To ensure an appropriate investigation and response, supervisors shall discuss all harassment complaints with Human Resources. Upon notification of a complaint, a prompt, thorough and objective investigation will be conducted under the direction of Human Resources. All information will be handled with the highest degree of confidentiality possible under the circumstances and with due regard for the rights and wishes of all parties. If the investigation produces evidence a policy was violated, appropriate action will be taken to correct and remedy the problem. Such actions may include, for example, counseling, training, written or verbal warnings, transfer, and termination of employment. The results of the investigation will be disclosed to the person making the report and the person alleged to have violated company policy. In the case of harassment by a customer, vendor or other non-employee of the Relias, possible remedial action may include letters of objection discussing the issue and requesting that the conduct cease, or refusal to continue the business relationship. Every employee and consultant is expected to support and carry out the policy. Any manager or supervisor observing or knowing of a harassing situation shall take immediate action to stop it. Supervisory and Human Resources personnel who receive reports of harassment shall seriously consider all such complaints and take immediate steps to implement this policy in accordance with its provisions. Relias strongly encourages all employees to bring concerns and complaints about harassment to the attention of management. A prompt internal investigation will allow the Company to fulfill its commitment to ensure a workplace free of harassment and discrimination.

REVIEW/REVISION HISTORY

Date of Change	Completed by	Summary of Change/Review
5/11/2018	Nicole Matteson	Created document